

OLIVER EVERETT IS BACK to amuse us on KING GEORGE III
“THE MOST CULTURED MONARCH”

Oliver Everett, who was the Private Secretary to the HRH Prince and Princess of Wales and the Librarian at Windsor Castle, is a highly regarded worldwide Lecturer on the Royals, Art, Silver and India.

DATE: FRIDAY, 25th OCTOBER 2019 – from 6pm – 8pm approx

VENUE: ST JAMES'S CHURCH, SOMERTON, OX25 6LL

GEORGE III is unjustly remembered for being mad and losing the American colonies! Oliver will, in his inimitable erudite and witty way, correct this impression. With accompanying slides he will describe George III's life, family and his patronage of the arts with important additions to the Royal Collection. Oliver will also talk about the King's relationship with America and its people

COST; £25 including entrance shot of sherry, as well as wine and canapes after the lecture.
